

TENANTS ACCUSED BY THIRD
BURGLARY IN TWO WEEKSRobbers This Time Get $1,500
Loot—Police Are Slow to Investigate.

Burglars who entered the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Langdon on the fifth floor at No. 140 West 68th Street sometime before 9:30 o'clock last night got away with $1,500, but are said to have overlooked a small safe containing $50,000 in bonds. Mr. Langdon is a broker.

The burglary is the third reported from the apartment house in two weeks. At 6 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Charles Schoengood, wife of the United States Auctioneer for the District of New York, was awakened in her bedroom on the ninth floor to find a masked person standing over her. She was stunned by a terrific blow over the head.

Two weeks ago the apartment of Wendell Baker on the seventh floor was entered from an adjoining roof. Last night's visitors appear to have made the same approach. Marks indicate that they entered through a chamber window.

Mrs. Langdon thinks she frightened the burglars away by her early return. She found the family linen and other rolled up in a big bag on the drawing room floor. She thinks the men inside must have been warned by the sound.

The police were informed, but up to 10 o'clock this morning no detective had appeared to make an investigation.

AIRSHIPS AS SANATORIUMS
FOR TUBERCULOUS CASESBritish Doctor Says Patients May Live for Weeks at Altitude of 5,000 Feet.

LONDON, Oct. 24 (By the Associated Press).—The employment of airships as sanatoria for the treatment of tuberculosis and other diseases is advocated by a doctor who was attached to the British air force during the war, according to the Globe. The patients, it is pointed out, would be able to live for several days or even weeks at a height of about 5,000 feet.

The big airships built by England for war purposes, the doctor says, can be fitted up as sanatoria for patients suffering from consumption, anæmia, neurasthenia and other ills, and, except in very bad weather, can cruise about for weeks at a time.

DR. CHARLES H. ROBERTS,
FIRST NEGRO ALDERMAN
ELECTED IN NEW YORK

Dr. Charles H. Roberts of No. 247 Lenox Avenue, Alderman-elect of the 27th District, is the first negro ever to be elected to the board in New York. Alderman Roberts is a dentist, who, regardless of his color, became President of the Manhattan Dental and Pharmaceutical Association. At the outbreak of the war he was in London as a delegate to the International Dental Convention, where he read a paper on the treatment of the negro's teeth in America. In 1915 he volunteered his services without pay to the Medical Department of the French Army and served as a dentist during the early part of the conflict. After his return to the United States Dr. Roberts gave free dental treatment to men in the service throughout the war. He has lived in New York for twenty-five years.
